World BioEconomy Forum goes to Brazil – live from Belém!

18 – 20 October 2021

The World BioEconomy Forum offers a platform for circular bioeconomy stakeholders. The Forum will be held in Brazil this year, and additionally there will be a series of Roundtable discussions held online, all of which follow the agenda of the World BioEconomy Forum.

The 2021 season will provide several new features and opportunities to get engaged with the Forum and its many members and followers.

The 3rd Forum was successfully held virtually from Ruka in September 2020 and was extremely well attended. Feedback from the 400+ audience was very positive.

"The online virtual event performed exactly according to our plan. We are delighted with this year's Forum's outcome, despite the challenges COVID-19 has presented. The success of the Forum this year highlights once again that the circular bioeconomy is a vital tool in the mitigation of climate change."

Programme

Programme planning is already underway by the Advisory Board – which again contains influential stakeholders of the circular bioeconomy from all over the world.

Season 2021 contains several new features!

World BioEconomy Circle

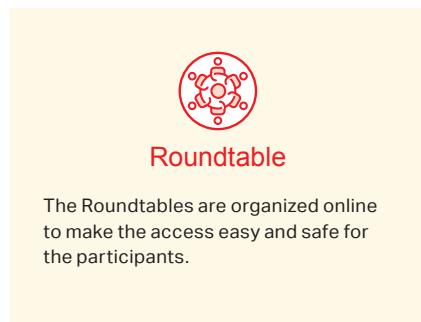

The World BioEconomy Forum provides a global platform for circular bioeconomy stakeholders around the world to share their views and learn from each other. It also provides the perfect opportunity for networking within the circular bioeconomy society.

Online Store

The Online Store provides easy access to products and materials relating to the World BioEconomy Forum. You can review, order and purchase on the site. The first products on offer are the recordings of the Forum held on 2020.

Roundtables

Hard talk is ensured by high profile speakers on specific topics featured at the Roundtables. Each Roundtable is run by a professional moderator who knows the topic in and out. As these are online events, you as a delegate will have easy and safe access to all of the Roundtables. A relaxed environment is provided by the WCBEF team – we are there to serve you.
